

Ameri100 acquires ATCG, a SAP cloud services firm

By Emily Bader, March 13, 2017 at 12:15 PM

Princeton-based Ameri Holdings Inc. announced Friday it has acquired ATCG Solutions, a SAP cloud services firm.

ATCG, based in Folsom, California, will strengthen Ameri100's SAP cloud service capabilities and presence in the U.S. market. It also reinforces Ameri100's position as a systems integrator and service provider across the global SAP product portfolio, it said.

"We are excited about the acquisition of ATCG, which, in a short span of time, has established itself as a strong player in the high-growth SAP cloud services segment. The combination of ATCG and Ameri100 will allow us to better serve our combined customers worldwide," Giri Devanur, CEO and president of Ameri100, said. "With this acquisition, Ameri100 has successfully completed eight acquisitions since its inception with several attractive target firms in the pipeline."

"ATCG has been able to establish itself as a prominent player in the SAP consulting market with its cloud services. This combination will bring to both ATCG and Ameri100 customers expanded skills and a deep knowledge base that leverages Ameri100's global partner network and capabilities," Brent Kelton, CEO of ATCG and now Ameri100's executive vice president and head of sales, said.

"We see a perfect complement of services and markets served between ATCG and Ameri100, one that augurs well for clients and employees of both companies," Lokesh Sikaria, managing partner of Moneta Ventures and a majority stakeholder in ATCG, said.

Financial terms were not disclosed.

###